Not illustrated. 1882 Excerpt: .elocation, but merely to aid the mind in attaining au exact apprehension of the nature and character of the elements of vocal sound, in certain relations. It is not meant that either the couplet from Pope s Homer, which is introduced in the following illustration, or the lines which follow it, must be read with the precise melody exhibited in the diagram, or that they cannot be appropriately read with any other. The design of this exemplification is merely to show the different forms of radical pitch, as they occur in the actual use of the voice, and to render the practice of them definite and exact. The repetition of the exercise will render the ear accurate and discriminating, and will preserve the student from inadvertently contracting the false intonation arising from the general neglect of this part of elocation, and from the impossibility of discussing or explaining its peculiarities till the means of instruction were furnished by exact analysis and precise nomenclature, --benefits for which science and education stand equally indebted to the discriminating genius and philosophic investigation of Dr. Rush. w - Monotone. Falling Ditone. Rising Iritone. Risiny JJttone Where yon wild fig trees join the walls of Troy. Falling Tritone. Alternation. Triad of the Cadence. To secure the full benefit of discrimination and of exact practice, it will be a useful exercise to repeat the phrases of melody in the diagram, on the tonic and other elements, on syllables, and on the following...
