Riegle, Jr. (Chairman of the Committee) presiding. Opening Statement of Chairman Donald W. Riegle, Jr. The Chairman. The Committee will come to order. Let me welcome all those in attendance this afternoon. We have an important hearing scheduled today and we very much appreciate having the Comptroller General here with us again, Mr. Bowsher, who has done so much important work in conjunction with this Committee and others in the Congress. Accompanying General Bowsher today are: Mr. Donald Chapin, who is the Chief Accountant; Mr. James Bothwell, who is the Director of Financial Institutions and Markets Issues within the General Government Division; Mr. Michael Burnett, who is the Assistant Director of that same area; and Ms. Cecile Trop, also serving as an Assistant Director in that same area. I m going to make an opening statement myself. We have other Members that, because of other conflicting activities this afternoon, will be coming and going as they can. I know Senator D Amato particularly wanted to be here, but he is engaged in a policy discussion at the moment that requires his presence elsewhere, so he may arrive at a somewhat later time. But I very much want to welcome you back to the Committee and thank you for the important work that s been done and...
