Griffin offers observations from his own life as a father, a devoted husband, a teacher, and a motorcycle and camping enthusiast. If you have ever wondered where God is, Griffin shows us with a straight-forward style, giving heartfelt insights to the reader. The reader will enjoy the very personal accounts of the struggles and joys experienced by the author in his journey to God. Observe and know that God can be found. In the deepest of nights, and the brightest of days, our Lord can be found. His love and forgiveness, strength and courage can be ours. We are not alone, fending for ourselves in this world of uncertainties, but God is with us. Griffin has taught for twenty-seven years in both public and private school settings. His students have ranged in age from first grade to twelfth grade. He currently lives in northeastern Minnesota near the beautiful shores of Lake Superior where he works at the public library. He and his wife, Patti, enjoy Lake Superior, going camping and on motorcycle rides. Griffin is an active member of the Twelve Holy Apostles Orthodox Church where he sings in the choir and chants for Sunday morning matins. He has always enjoyed writing, and he has finally put his skills to the test with this great devotional, Observations: Life With God.
