I am a creationist who believes in evolutionA[a A] Wisdom Has Built Her House is the second installment of the To and Fro Trilogy that further defines amnesia victim Kelsey Pritchard s exodus into wedded bliss and her returning to work as senior partner at her law firm. Having grown through the gnawing issues that plagued her for four years, Kelsey is now confronted with betrayal, heartache, loss, and deceit which tests the boundaries of friendship and the love of those closest to her. With a renewed sense of self, coupled with fully regaining her memory, Kelsey is encouraged to continue evolving into the self-reliant woman, mother and business owner she had always hoped to be. With the aid of Sgt. Duncan, Debbie Miller, Ian Lewis and the voice of reason known only as her Mentor, Kelsey is able to once again overcome adversity. Only this time, she has grown resolute in understanding that everything and everyone has an expiration date.
