The published Rules of the Board fall far short of the actual practice of the Board as regards the conduct of the Board's business. As is too frequently the case in American cities, the rules of the Board of Education fail to distinguish between the several functions of the Board, and between the sphere of activity of the Board and that of its officers. The Board of Education should be an eminent group selected, or elected by the people, to represent them in the control of the function of public education. The Board should be a deliberative, not an...
