Alexander I do not know why it is, I fear most for him; it cannot be I love him best. She stooped and kissed the rosy lips, and a tear dropped upon them. How happy, how happy, when we are all eternally safe, I and the children whom God has given me! and you, my dear husband, my best, dearest husband! You are too sad, my Amy. No, no. I hope and pray they may have long, busy, useful lives. They are blest and favoured who are suffered to do much for Christ below. We may sometimes think too much of the joy of resting with Jesus, --too little of the high privilege of working for Him long below; of suffering for Him if He wills it, --we can never suffer for Him in heaven. They were both silent for a minute, --bending over...
