These stand there, as I can tell thee, idle and inert, looking over the Desert, foolishly enough for the last three thousand years: but canst thou not open thy Hebrew Bible, then, or even Luther s Version thereof? - Sartor Resartus, ii. 8. The Gospel is like the great mountains, which take new colours and group themselves into fresh masses and outlines as we view them from this side or that, in sunlight or starlight or storm. So Christianity reveals itself in many phases as we gaze at it from different standpoints and approach it along various avenues of life and experience. To some inquiring minds it glimmers afar off, as the Eternal Spirit of goodness brooding on the face of these turbid waters of time. By others it is recognised as...
