In education, as in manufacturing and commerce, it is indispensable to the greatest efficiency. To prevent wasted energy and discouragements which turn many young people from the pathway of their highest development, demands a closer cooperation of the educational forces of the State. This truth is now generally recognized; and, as a result, the efficiency of education in Missouri has been rapidly increasing. County supervision and articulation of elementary and high schools are phases of a general movement which includes also the affiliation of high schools and University, so that there may be a pathway direct from the primary school of any community to the highest educational opportunities offered by the State. For the same reason that high schools must take the initiative in solving the problem of articulating elementary and secondary schools, the University must take the initiative in solving the problem of affiliating...
