Pursuant to a legislative requirement, GAO audited the appropriated funds administered by the House Office of the Sergeant-at-Arms for the periods ended December 31, 1993 and June 30, 1993 and the related statements of operations and cash flows for the periods then ended. GAO found that: (1) the financial statements presented fairly, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, the Offices assets, liabilities, government equity, funding sources, expenses, and cash flows; (2) the internal controls in effect on December 31, 1993, reasonably ensured that losses, compliance, or material misstatements would be prevented or detected; and (3) there was no evidence of material noncompliance with applicable laws and regulations. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
